CPA Joins Garcia Garman & Shea Staff.

Lebanon, Pa based accounting Firm Garcia Garman & Shea, PC announces the appointment of Lisa M. Kreiser-Cassel, CPA to the staff.

“She brings excellent industry experience to the Firm, most recently as an auditor at another Lebanon accounting firm. This followed five years at KPMG Peat Marwick in Harrisburg, where she planned, organized and supervised audit engagements. She has also worked as a controller, where she was responsible for the day to day fiscal operations of the organization as well as the financial reporting,” notes G2S audit partner Bill Oyster.

Lisa brings additional strengths to a CPA firm that already has over 50 years of experience and an enviable record of success in the Central Pennsylvania marketplace. She will perform a variety of duties, but her key role will be as a primary member of the G2S audit team. “My role will be to help clients develop systems to be more effective. I will practice the G2S philosophy of placing top value on customer service,” she states.

Lisa will regularly attend continuing education courses, which will allow her to keep current on the numerous accounting and auditing changes in a rapidly changing industry. Her focus is on issues that affect governmental and non-profit education.

Mrs. Cassel, a graduate of Penn State University, is a devoted mother of four sons and an enthusiastic follower of their academic and sporting accomplishments. She also finds time to be active in the community. She has held the position of treasurer of various organizations for the past 16 years.

The main office of Garcia Garman & Shea, PC is at 216 South Eighth Street, Lebanon. They also have a Lancaster office. For more information call 717-274-5600, or visit www.g2scpa.com.
